JOE BLACKBURN'S VOW.

What a Wonderful Change Has Come Over His Senatorial Dream.

New York Sun.

The appearance of the Hon. Joseph C. Blackburn as an aspirant for the moral and political worthiness of Gobel is not the least extraordinary circumstance of the Kentucky campaign.

Mr. Blackburn is a candidate for United States Senator and his present interest in exactly parallel with Gobel's. Yet, notwithstanding this, it is difficult to imagine Mr. Blackburn taking the stump in behalf of a man whom he denounced as a murderer not years ago, and threatened with a vengeance which it should be his mission to insure.

On Sunday, April 14th, 1865, Mon. Joseph C. Blackburn stood beside the coffin of Colonel John L. Sanford at Corvinton and requested the remarkable vow.

"John Sanford was to me like a brother. I loved him. I hope God may spare me and I shall make it my life's mission to avenge him by burying his slayer in the depths of unexcused public execration."

The slayer of Colonel Sanford was William Gobel of Corvinton. Five years ago the lawyer and veteran Confederate soldier had a bitter quarrel. One day they met on the street and Sanford was shot dead. According to the evidence at Gobel's trial Sanford had been the first to draw his pistol, and the slayer was acquitted on the ground of self defense. The friends of Colonel Sanford have always held, however, that the provocation came from Gobel, and that the blood-guiltiness in Gobel's heart. Among those friends was Senator Blackburn when he prayed God to grant him a life long enough to avenge Sanford by burying Gobel in "the depths of public execration."

Now in Blackburn performing his self-appointed task of vengeance. On Monday of last week, in a speech at Wickliff, Ballard county, he is reported as saying:

"Gobel stands before the Democracy of the state as a worthy and noble foe. A worthy leader of the cause!"

The residence recently occupied by Major Thomas J. Chewenow, No. 21 West Second street, Apply to Mr. L. V. Davis.

Notice: The friends and former patrons of Mrs. Nina Brooks Hamilton, who died September 4th, 1899, at her residence in Niagara, are notified.

WASHINGTON OPERA-HOUSE. All Promises were Fulfilled Last Night by the Murray Comedy Company.

Last night the opera-house was literally packed to the doors with a good-natured crowd who welcomed the old favorites, the Murray Comedy Company, in a rousing fashion. The play selected for their repertoire was a four-act melodrama, "The Roanoke," which all visitors here say that the performance was the first attempt of the Company there was not a hitch in the entire program and all the beauties of the play were given their full value. The first act stage setting was particularly beautiful and home-like and the scene was so arranged in the theatre as well as the play. The Company have sustained their former reputation it is not necessary to particularize, although Miss Crawford, Mr. Lambert, Mr. Robinson, Miss Lamb, Mrs. Lee and Messrs. Tullish and Whitman carried off the honors. To Miss Lonnie Deane belongs a wonderful amount of applause and she certainly secured it. Her electric dances and beautiful effects formed a fitting conclusion to a remarkably successful performance. This Company carries its own orchestra and it is a bright and lively one and altogether the Murray Comedy Co. has increased the favorable reputation they left here on a former visit by a large majority and their all visitors here are assured for the balance of the week.

HELD UP A FRIEND. And Constable Dawson Held Him up at the Mason County Jail.

Yesterday afternoon there were several Negroes in the saloon of Mr. John E. E. on Market street, one being George Milton, better known as "Scarface Bear," and another was James Brown, a Virginia banjo and guitar player.

Milton had a very old pie in his shirt front and a watch in his pocket.

Brown made it his business to get close to the Negroes and see if they were sticky enough to make the pie and watch adhere to them—and they did.

Milton at once raised the cry that Brown had his watch, and demanded it of him, to which Brown stoutly denied, and finally gave up, stating that he had found it on the floor.

Scarface then missed his pie, and Brown again gave it up.

About that time Mr. Eitel called for an officer, whereupon Constable Dawson stepped in and arrested Brown and took him before Squire Grant, who fined him for being drunk. He was sent to Jail, and asked permission upon his arrival there to go in the back part of the ball in a moment, and Mr. Dawson saw him three or four times, into the saw.

The pistol was a borrowed one, and it was gotten out.

Brown will be tried some time this week upon the charge of highway robbery, and it is more than probable that he will be held over to the Grand Jury.

Mr. J. E. Thomas of Ohio Falls, Ind., left last week to accept a position at that place. Mr. Thomas has been employed at Maysville for the past five months.

Mr. Walter Houston, City Attorney of Lexington, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Vancoville, where he spent last night in the interest of Gobel and his ticket. Mr. Houston is one of Kentucky's brilliant young lawyers and it is quite certain that his lawyers were well educated.

Bakers' Bread.

The bakers' bread of today is not the bakers' bread of twenty years ago. Science and study has developed this food product more than any other manufactured article of consumption.

The Traxel Company

this city is now the leading bread bakers of this section, simply because they have given study and close attention for years to making Bread that will please the public. Even now there is an impression that prevails among the few that bakers bread is unwholesome and unfit for family use. We will admit that there are many bakers who make their bread the same as their forefathers did years ago, and hence this impression is justifiable to those who never had an opportunity to get Bread made by modern processes and by bakers who thoroughly understand how to make Bread that will be praised for its merits. The F. H. Traxel Co. has done this share to supply this section, enabling people to get Bread that will meet with every requirement. We make the assertion that this Bread will meet with every requirement because we have evidence of it, and the evidence is the increasing demand where

24-HOUR SERMON.

Rev. Hal Pollitt the Talking Revivalist We Ever Heard of.

The most remarkable revival ever held in this section of Kentucky is that which has closed at Henderson's Chapel, Henderson county, and which has been in progress for six or seven weeks.

Some of them would go into ecstasy and carry on in the most exuberant manner, while others have fallen prostrate at the foot of the altar and lain there for an hour or a time, or just as long as the Rev. Hal Pollitt would remain with them. While these Christians or converts would be lying upon the others at the meetings no one would dare move them, and men and women have lain in such a position for nearly all day.

The meetings lasted two weeks, and there have been twenty-five and one hundred conversions and sanctifications. It is said that Dr. Pollitt has the same effect upon conversions wherever he goes. His sermons are remarkable for their length, sometimes continuing almost the whole day.
